

HERKIMER COUNTY SMALL BUSINESS REVOLVING LOAN FUND

Establishment of Revolving Loan Fund

Herkimer County has established a Small Business Loan/Grant Revolving Loan Fund to provide low-interest loan and grant funding for projects that expand and/or retain employment opportunities for businesses with less than ten employees. The Fund was established through a grant to Herkimer County from Assemblyman Marc Butler and Senator James Seward.

Administration of the Revolving Loan Fund

Through the County of Herkimer, the Herkimer County Industrial Development Agency (HCIDA) administers the Revolving Loan Fund and is responsible for the day-to-day administrative tasks associated with the project administration. The HCIDA is a public benefit corporation managed by a 7-member Board appointed by the Herkimer County Legislature.

As funds become available in sufficient quantity for relending, the Executive Director will review any and all project proposals for consideration. Upon receipt of required documentation from applicants, the loan committee will review and make their recommendation to the Board of Directors at which time they will review and ultimately give approval if they so desire to those projects most advantageous to Herkimer County, given the purpose of the Small Business Revolving Loan Fund.

Purpose of Revolving Loan Fund

RLF program funds can be used for various activities, provided the following program objectives are addressed:

1. Creation of new employment opportunities, or retention of existing employment opportunities.
2. Leveraging of private funds.
3. Increasing the taxable value of real property.
